

Agreement between the United States of America and Bosnia and Herzegovina regarding the surrender of persons to the International Criminal Court

The United States of America and Bosnia and Herzegovina, hereinafter "the Parties",

Reaffirming the importance of bringing to justice those who commit genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes,

Taking into account the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina, with particular reference to the provisions of Appendix B to Annex 1A relating to immunities for NATO personnel, as well as all bilateral agreements between the United States of America and Bosnia and Herzegovina,

Taking into account that the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court of July 17, 1998 is intended to complement and not supplant national criminal jurisdiction,

Considering that the Parties have each expressed their intention to investigate and to prosecute where appropriate acts within the jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court alleged to have been committed by their officials, employees, military personnel or other nationals,

Wishing to strengthen bilateral cooperation between the United States of America and Bosnia and Herzegovina,

Bearing in mind Article 98 of the Rome Statute,

Hereby agree as follows:

1. For purposes of this Agreement, "U. S. persons" are all U. S. nationals and all current and former U. S. military personnel.

2. U. S. persons present in the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall not, absent the express consent of the United States of America,

(a) be surrendered or transferred by any means to the International Criminal Court for any purpose, or

(b) be surrendered or transferred by any means to any other entity or third country, or expelled to a third country, for the purpose of surrender to or transfer to the International Criminal Court.

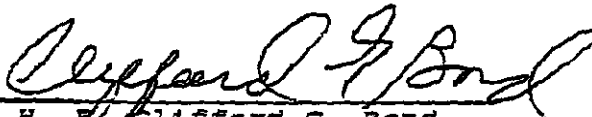

3. When Bosnia and Herzegovina extradites, surrenders, or otherwise transfers a U. S. person to a third country, Bosnia and Herzegovina will not agree to the surrender or transfer of that person to the International Criminal Court by a third country, absent the express consent of the United States of America.

4. This Agreement shall enter into force upon an exchange of notes confirming that each Party has completed the necessary domestic legal requirements to bring the Agreement into force. It will remain in force for one year after the date on which one Party notifies the other of its intent to terminate this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement shall continue to apply with respect to any act occurring, or any allegation arising before the effective date of termination.

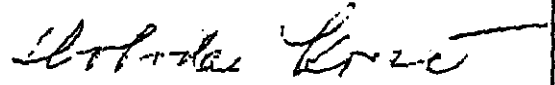

DONE in duplicate at Sarajevo this 16th day of May, 2003, in the English language. Bosnian, Croatian, and Serbian language texts shall be prepared which shall be considered authentic upon an exchange of diplomatic notes confirming their conformity with the English language text.
